

Annual Customer Meeting & Informational Meeting Minutes

Thursday, March 27, 2008

On March 27, 2008, the Northwestern Water & Sewer District's Board of Trustees' President, John Cheney, welcomed approximately 50 customers, employees and guests to its annual meeting held at the District's offices at 12560 Middleton Pike, Bowling Green, Ohio.

After introducing the District's board members and staff, President John Cheney introduced Jerry Greiner, the District's Executive Director, who recognized the District's employees and all elected officials in attendance.

Retired Judge Charles Kurfess was introduced and spoke on his role in forming the District in the years between 1991 and 1994.

Greiner relayed the Board's goals and objectives as first expressed when the District was formed.

John Sopko, District Project Manager, gave a short summary of new District water and sewer projects for the year.

President Cheney asked for questions and thanked everyone for coming. Tours were offered of the District's facility and exhibits.

With no other business to come before the Board, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jerry Greiner
Executive Director
